Rise and Shine

13 and that you esteem them very highly in love because of their work. Live in peace with one another. 14 We urge you, brethren, admonish the unruly, encourage the fainthearted, help the weak, be patient with everyone. 15 See that no one repays another with evil for evil, but always seek after that which is good for one another and for all people.

From the Pastor's Office

November has begun, with one of its holidays celebrating God's goodness and power starting with All Saints Day on the 1st which we will observe on Sunday the 6th. Christ The King Sunday is on the 20th. Of course, there is our national holiday of Thanksgiving on the 24th. The month draws to a close with the close of the church year and the beginning of a new church year with the First Sunday in Advent on Sunday, November 27th.

Every day we can be thankful that we have an eternal king who took on flesh to die in our place and make us pure so that we can be with him and all the other saints in glory both here in this life and all the more in the life to come!

Dear Plymouth Lutheran Congregation,

Carmen and I would like to express our sincere gratitude for your kind words, cards, and gifts for Pastor Appreciation Day and on other days. We are humbled to be a part of such a supportive church family and have felt warmly welcomed and graciously supported during this transition into full time ministry. I look forward to continuing this path as your Pastor and thank you for the opportunity to do so.

God's Peace!

-Carmen and Pastor Ryan Kandoll

Great Time at Feed My Starving Children on October 5th

Dear PALC,

The meals you packed at our Chanhassen, MN location on October 5, 2022 were shipped to:

- Buckner International in Dominican Republic on Tuesday October 11, 2022

Precious children will be eating a nourishing meal soon because of you. Thank you. You've made an incredible difference.

Did you know? Meals usually take between two weeks and six months to travel to their destination. It all depends on where in the world they go and how hard it is to get there. They cross the ocean by ship or plane and wait in line to clear customs. Then they journey by car, bike, canoe or even donkey to reach our partners. Many hands carry these meals to children and families in need.

$88 feeds a child for a year; $365 feeds a family for a year; $1866 provides a pallet of food; Everything helps!

Hello there! We hope that fall is going well for you, and are reminded of the promised fruits of the Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. I pray that He would give you the patience and the peace of whatever it is that your heart is waiting for.

Well, as you probably already know, Saul and I got married on October 1st!

It is a crazy dream to actually be married, and every day I look at Saul in disbelief that I finally get to call the man I adore my husband. We are so happy and grateful.

Something else cool is that the day of our wedding, there was a large fundraising event at our other YWAM campus, where they showed a video of Saul's testimony! Give it a watch to see just how good God has been to my husband and to us as a couple.

We have been on vacation since the last week of September, and today is our last day before we go back to work. We have enjoyed our time away and our time with friends and family. We traveled to Los Angeles for a long weekend, and then spent a week in Minnesota for our wedding reception there.

Thank you to everyone who attended one or both of our wedding celebrations, and for those who sent us blessings from afar. We were overwhelmed by the love of our family and friends, who joyfully helped us put together these two parties.

When we go back to work tomorrow, we are jumping right in and working with a house building team, and we are excited to be working together.

That's all for now, thank you for all your support! Please keep us in your prayers, as we keep you in ours :)

Con mucho amor,
Saul y Nicole
